Explanatory notes

Item 1: Financial Statements and Reports

Section 317 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act) requires the last year's Financial Report, the Directors' Report and Auditors Report to be laid before the Company's Annual General Meeting. There is no requirement either in the Corporations Act or the Company's Constitution for the Shareholders to approve the Financial Report, the Directors' Report or the Auditors Report. Shareholders will be given a reasonable opportunity at the meeting to ask questions and make comments on these Reports and on the Company's business operations.

Item 2: Remuneration Report (Non-binding Resolution)

Under Section 250R of the Corporations Act, Shareholders have the opportunity to pass a non-binding resolution on the Remuneration Report at the Company's Annual General Meeting and, under section 250SA of the Corporations Act, the Chairman must allow the Shareholders a reasonable opportunity to ask questions about, or make comments on, the Remuneration Report.

The Remuneration Report, which explains the Board's policies in relation to the nature and level of remuneration paid to Directors and Specified Executives of the Company and which sets out remuneration details for each Director and Specified Executive, forms part of the Directors' Report included in the Annual Report for the financial year ended 30 June 2008 which has been sent to Shareholders with this Notice and Explanatory Notes

Shareholders should note that, as specified by section 250R of the Corporations Act, the vote on Item 2 is advisory only and is not binding on the Board or the Company. Shareholders will be given the opportunity to ask questions about or make comments on the Remuneration Report.

Item 3: Retirement of Mr Glen McLean

Clause 15.3 of the Company's Constitution requires that at each Annual General Meeting of the Company one third of the Directors (or if their number is not a multiple of three, then the number nearest to but not exceeding one-third) must retire from office. As the Managing Director is not subject to re-election under the Constitution, the number of Directors that must retire from office at the 2008 Annual General Meeting is one.

Mr Glen McLean, being the Director who has longest been in office, therefore retires by rotation but is not seeking re-election as a Director of the Company to enable him to focus on his full-time career.
